YOUNG AUTHORS Camp

June 4-8, 2012

A day-camp sponsored by the English Department and the National Writing Project

Writing for the Fun of It

A Summer Youth Program from the Center for Continuing Education and Academic Outreach

Writing for the Fun of It

June 4-8

2012 THEME:
"Going Green"

The goal of this week's camp is for participants to learn to enjoy writing. Young authors will practice a variety of styles (poetry, fictional stories, true stories, essays, skits, etc.) under the direction of experienced teachers from Calloway and surrounding counties, who will serve as writing coaches, consultants and as traditional classroom instructors. Emphasis will be placed on generating ideas, choosing a style and audience, ways of composing, and doing necessary revision. Each morning will include an art activity in conjunction with the writing projects.

"Writing for the Fun of It" is open to children ages 8-12.

COST
