Director, Psychological Center. The Department of Psychology invites applicants for the position of Director of the department's Psychological Center (to begin July, 2014). The position is full time, 12 month, non-tenure track. The Psychological Center is a community-based, sliding-fee-scale clinic which provides training for master's students in the clinical psychology master's program. The Psychology Department is committed to teaching and research excellence and offers an undergraduate psychology degree, a master's degree in clinical psychology (which embraces a scientist-practitioner approach and is accredited by the Masters in Psychology and Counseling Accreditation Council), and a master's degree in general experimental psychology.

Responsibilities include providing overall direction to the Psychological Center, supervising clinical practicum, initiating and maintaining contact with community agencies, participating in graduate teaching, and coordinating with the Department Chair and the Graduate Coordinator of the Clinical master's program to insure that the clinic meets the educational needs of graduate students.

The ideal candidate will have experience in psychotherapy and psychological testing (with both children and adults). Candidates must have Ph.D. or PsyD in Clinical Psychology from an APA-approved program, licensure in Kentucky (or eligibility for licensure within one year), and experience in the described areas. Preference will be given to candidates with a cognitive-behavioral orientation.

Salary is competitive and commensurate with level of experience. The clinic is closed during university breaks providing generous leave time. In addition to the annual salary, additional income may be earned by the Director through supervision of master's level therapists in the state of KY.

Murray State University is a comprehensive state university located in western Kentucky, approximately 2 hours NW of Nashville and close to lakes, hiking, and recreation areas. Murray State University is ranked 8th among public regional universities in the South and offers competitive salaries. The city of Murray (with a metro-area population of approximately 37,000) offers a low cost of living and access to many amenities, was selected as the Friendliest Small Town in America, and has been nationally recognized as a Playful City USA and among the 100 Best Communities for Young People. Murray Independent School District provides excellent K-12 education, was ranked as the 3rd highest K12 district in the state, and was selected as national 3rd-place finalist in ACT's 2013 College and Career Readiness Campaign.

The first review of materials will begin November 24, 2013, and will continue until the position is filled. To apply please visit: http://www.murraystatejobs.com/postings/2647. Through this online employment system, please submit 1) a letter of application addressing clinical background, experience in psychotherapy and psychological testing (with both children and adults), supervision, integration of research into practice, administrative skills, and licensure status or eligibility, 2) a current CV, and 3) copies of official transcripts. Please also have three recent letters of recommendation mailed to Clinic Director Search Committee, 212 Wells Hall, Department of Psychology, Murray State University, Murray, KY 42071.

Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. Murray State University is an equal education and employment opportunity, M/F/D, AA employer.