[redacted]

International Education Week
November 13-21, 2003

Thursday, November 13, 2003
Symposium on Globalization German Rojas Hidalgo, Carlos Salazar Ramirez, Farouk Umar, Seid Hassan, Mike Waag, Fred Miller	2:00-4:00 Curris Center Barkley Room
Reception for Costa Rican Senators, German Rojas Hidalgo & Carlos Salazar Ramirez	4:30-6:00 Big Apple Café
International Literature Read Students in MSU's Creative Writing program.	7:30 Curris Center Barkley Room
Friday, November 14, 2003
Biergarten Seminar on Professional Development Opportunities	4:00-6:00 Faculty Club
Monday, November 17, 2003
Faculty & Staff Photo Exhibit Photos taken by MSU faculty and staff during travel, research, or work abroad will be displayed.	All Week Curris Center Dance Lounge
Essay & Art Contest Exhibit Students in our community were invited to submit art or essays reflecting the theme of the week. Prizes will be awarded and a reception held to honor all students who entered work into the contest.	All Week Curris Center Dance Lounge
Curriculum Globalization Grants The Short Story at Home and Abroad Peter Murphy A course that began as "The American Short Story" evolved in the context of a weekend bachelor's degree program in business into a multicultural literature course, and now at MSU into an international short story course. Opening the Sandra	1:00-2:15 Curris Center Barkley Room

Flynn Multicultural Institute Mam-Yassin Sarr The purpose of this institute is to learn about and have discussions on culture, race, class, sexual orientation and religion as they relate to GLBTs, Middle Easterners, Europeans, Africans, Australians, Asians, and North Americans in the U.S.A. Music of Other Nations John Steffa Music of other nations has had an impact on the music of composers of the Western European tradition. Samples of non-Western musical performances played.
North America and The Middle East: Examining Similarities and Differences in Culture, Religion, Race, Class, Gender, Sexual Orientation, and Stereotypes.	3:30-5:00 Curris Center Barkley Room
Reception for Essay & Art Contest Entrants	5:00-6:30 Curris Center Dance Lounge
Tuesday, November 18, 2003
Counseling the Culturally Diverse Alison Driver International Counselor, Institute for International Studies	11:00-12:00 Curris Center Mississippi Room
Europe in Transition Professional Development Seminar Presentations by Participants & Information Session on EiT Sessions Presented by Jim Bryant, Art & Heath Keller, Information Systems	2:15-3:15 Curris Center Mississippi Room
The Ukraine & Its Origins Similarities & Differences between the Ukraine and the U.S.A. Ilona Abramova, Freedom Support Act	3:30-4:30 Curris Center Ohio Room

Undergraduate Scholarship Student
Change and Perspective in Art, Music, Patriotism These presentations by faculty who have participated in faculty development abroad and/or taught in study abroad programs, will feature the connections between international experience and culture, music, and art. Kathe Kollwitz: A Retrospective of Prints and Drawings that Created Social Change by Nicole Hand (Art) The Use of Patriotism in Three Countries: Germany, Japan, and the United States Yoko Hatakeyama (Modern Languages) French Flute School: 1900-1950 by Stephanie Rea (Music) Moderator: John Griffin (Library)	4:30-5:45 Curris Center Barkley Room
Access to Health Services Around the World	6:00-8:00 Mason Hall Auditorium
Wednesday, November 19, 2003
International Bazaar The Bazaar will feature international students and their native lands. International students will provide information on the culture, political system, economic system, language, etc. of their native land.	10:00-2:00 Curris Center Ballroom
Uzbekistan: A Cultural Exploration Shamil Vakhitov Freedom Support Act Undergraduate Scholarship Student	3:30-4:30 Curris Center Ohio Room
Thursday, November 20, 2003
Study Abroad in Germany:	11:45-1:15

Info Session and Pizza Lunch Future study abroaders can ask burning questions about the semester in Regensburg program. The Study Abroad Office, the Regensburg Program Committee, and former participants in the semester in Regensburg program will be present.	Curris Center Mississippi Room
Red Cross: A Comparative Analysis of the U.S. and the Former Russian States	2:00-3:00 Curris Center Ohio Room
International Coffee & Tea House Sample coffees and teas from around the world. (Free)	3:00-5:00 Curris Center Dance Lounge
Religion in a Global Culture How the process of globalization has affected religious traditions, and how religion may affect the further development of a global society. Chris Bierwirth, History & Jamie Whidden, History	4:30-5:30 Curris Center Barkley Room
Study Abroad Speak Out Hear from students who've studied abroad! This program focuses on study abroad options for students who wish to study modern languages abroad. Languages represented: Spanish, German, French, Japanese	5:30 Faculty Hall 208
Nuclear Safety & Security Overseas Dr. Ken Brockman Director of the Division of Nuclear Installation Safety Department of Nuclear Safety and Security International Atomic Energy Agency Vienna, Austria	7:30 Curris Center Theatre
Friday, November 21, 2003
Torture Abolition & Survivors Support Coalition Truth Speaker Human Rights in Mexico, Torture & Its Effects on the Economy Emmy Aviles	12:30-2:00 Curris Center Barkley Room

Breton

For the most up-to-date information, check our IEW website at www.mursuky.edu/qacd/cip/iew.