

The following requirements apply to graduate students enrolled in the Online Master of Science in Agriculture Degree Program who do not wish to declare an area of emphasis.

Course Requirements

	Credit Hours	Semester(s) Offered Online
Required Core Courses (19 hours)
AGR 686 Presentation & Training Strategies in Agriculture	3	All
AGR 700 Research in Agriculture <sup>1,2,3,6</sup>	6	Varied
AGR 713 Graduate Computer Applications in Agriculture <sup>5</sup>	3	All
AGR 720 Experimental Design and Statistical Analysis <sup>5</sup>	3	Spring
AGR 722 Graduate Capstone Seminar <sup>4</sup>	1	All
AGR 735 Research Methodology <sup>5</sup>	3	Spring
Agriculture Courses (12 hours)
Choose from courses with AGR or AED prefixes. Consult with your advisor to determine appropriate courses that are currently available online. Courses should be selected to meet the individual educational and professional goals of the student.
-----Total Credit Hours-----	31

<sup>1</sup>Must include significant creative or scholarly component that will be presented as part of student's final oral presentation. See HSOA Creative Component Guidelines for details.

<sup>2</sup>Must be taken with advisor/committee chair.

<sup>3</sup>Up to 3 hours may be substituted with AGR 651 or other appropriate individualized course with outcomes that meet the requirements of a scholarly or creative component.

<sup>4</sup>Must be taken final semester of graduate program.

<sup>5</sup>Recommended to be taken during first semester of graduate program.

<sup>6</sup>Must be taken for 6 hours of credit.