10:30 am - 12:00 pmKeynote Speaker: Alison Malmon, Founder and Executive Director of Active Minds, Curris Center Theatre

Active Minds is the nation's leading nonprofit organization that supports student and young adult mental health. Alison Malmon's only brother, Brian, struggled with mental health issues when they were growing up. Left with more questions than answers, Alison looked for a student organization when she got to college that was talking about mental health. Finding none, she started her own. Now, more than 15 years later, Alison has cultivated that small student group into the internationally recognized nonprofit organization, Active Minds. Ms. Malmon's keynote address is titled "Active Minds: Changing the conversation about mental health." Admission to this event is included with the Family Weekend Registration Fee. Please wear your Family Weekend wristband to this event. Wristbands are found in your Family Weekend Welcome Packet/Backpack.

Note: Seating capacity of the Theatre is 315.
